

Shun Hendrix was born on October 26, 1997 and grew up in Atlanta, Georgia. When he was 11 years old, he exhibited the determination, voice, heart and charisma which landed him an impromptu audition for "The King of the South," T.I. The legendary rapper was so impressed that it inspired his single "Follow Your Dreams" in which Hendrix vocals were featured. Hendrix's mother always told him, "if you can dream it, you can achieve it," and he is indeed pursuing his dreams.

While with Grand Hustle, Shun gained major experience performing live in theaters, lounges, nightclubs, colleges, and concert arenas as he showcased his talents in song and dance. His talents have been seen all over the USA and featured on the "Swagger Like Us," "Hitman DJs," "Toys in the Hood" concerts; and he performed for the retired city of Atlanta's Mayor, Shirley Franklin. Additionally, he was broadcasted live on BET's "Tiny and Toya" and "VH1's TI's: Family Hustle" reality show.

Shun worked with the legendary vocal coach Jan Smith who was very instrumental in helping him hone his natural skills. Additionally, he worked with actor /director Robert Townsend, V-103's DJ Greg Street, and songwriter Brian Michael Cox. Finally, Shun had the opportunity to be featured on the soundtrack of the "Pack the Parks" campaign featuring artists such as Keri Hilson, Usher, and Tiny, among others.

Shun's sound is smooth and reminiscent to his musical influence of Usher. His music is youthful and fun with a touch of the real. Shun is talented enough to stand out from the pack, says legendary vocal coach, Jan Smith.

Current projects:

Shun recently released his newest EP entitled "Official" under the WHIRL MUSIC GROUP BANNER, and is currently promoting his singles "Hold Up", "Kissing Games" and his collaboration hit with his YRNB mates the remake of "Secret Garden". Shun continues to embrace his love for music and the God-given gift of voice to sing it!
