Vedo

Vedo is a 23-year old American singer, songwriter and entertainer most recognized for his stellar performances on season four of NBC's popular talent competition, The Voice. Born and raised in Benton Harbor, Michigan, Vedo began singing at the age of 9 when his mother discovered his vocal ability were above average, and impressed anyone who heard his distinct tone, range and perfect pitch. Although his voice was certainly a gift, it was a curse as well, bringing more attention than many of his peers in the form of admiring girls and fast crowds.

Shun Hendrix

Shun Hendrix was born on October 26, 1997 and grew up in Atlanta, Georgia. When he was 11 years old, he exhibited the determination, voice, heart and charisma which landed him an impromptu audition for "The King of the South," T.I. The legendary rapper was so impressed that it inspired his single "Follow Your Dreams" in which Hendrix vocals were featured. Hendrix's mother always told him, "if you can dream it, you can achieve it," and he is indeed pursuing his dreams.

Natasha Mosley

Contemporary R&B vocalist Natasha Mosley, like stylistic predecessors Monica and Ciara, came out of the state of Georgia, specifically Atlanta. The singer released some confident singles, including "Tattoo" (a version of which featured Tyga), before she reached Billboard's R&B chart the first time, as a guest artist on Jeremih's explicitly carnal 2013 single "All the Time." After Mosley added to her discography with appearances on Young Dro's High Times and more independently released solo tracks, she issued Rose Hall, her debut album, in 2015. The 17-track set included collaborations with K.E. on the Track and fellow ATL natives Zaytoven and FKJ.

Mishon

Captivating audiences on stage and on camera, Mishon Ratcliff, simply known as “Mishon”, is a 23-year -old R&B singer-songwriter/actor currently residing in Atlanta, Georgia by way of Los Angeles, California. Effortlessly blending heartfelt lyrics that stem from real life experience to the flow of hip-hop infused beats, Mishon gives listeners a first person perspective into his world. He believes that the world revealed to him transitioning into manhood in the music industry, trials and tribulations and every day battles that comes in life.
